 <<Content reference>>

The screenshot displays the CBSA Traveller Transformation Air Mode interface. At the top, a progress bar shows five steps: Welcome, Scan Travel Document, Take Photo, Declaration (the current step), and Complete. The main heading is "Tclli One" followed by the question: "Do you exceed your personal exemptions including the total value of goods or the allowable quantity of alcohol /tobacco?". Below this, a text box provides details on personal exemptions for residents returning to Canada, categorized by absence duration: less than 24 hours, 24 to 48 hours, and more than 48 hours to 7 days. It also includes an "Alcohol and Tobacco Exemption Table" with specific limits for wine, liquor, beer, alcohol, cigarettes, tobacco sticks, cigars, and manufactured tobacco. At the bottom left is a "Quit" button with an 'X' icon. At the bottom right are "Yes" and "No" buttons. The footer features the "Canada" logo and the "Toronto Pearson" logo.
